

Toxics use reduction (TUR) activities in Canada -- People and organisations

3.10 Provincial/Territorial focus - Prince Edward Island

Organisation	Contact person(s)	Address	Phone	Website and/or e-mail	Description	Purpose	TUR/cancer prevention activity/ies	Members	Work(ed) with/Member of (examples)	Keywords
Environmental Coalition of Prince Edward Island (ECO-PEI)	Gary Schneider, Co-chair	126 Richmond St. Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island C1A 1H9	902-566-4696 F: 902-566-4037	http://www.ecopei.ca E-mail: energy(at)ecopei.ca	Community-based action group formed in 1988. Works on energy efficiency, climate change, public transit, ecological forestry project and other environmental issues.	Work in partnership to understand and improve the Island environment.	Cosmetic pesticide ban.		Prince Edward Island Eco-Net	Chemicals Coalition Environment Health Pesticides and alternatives Training/ workshops
Prince Edward Island Environmental Health Co-operative	Marion Copleston, President	c/o Voluntary Resource Centre 81 Prince St. Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island C1A 4R3	902-675-4093	http://www.peienvironmentalhealth.org E-mail: peiehc(at)gmail.com	Volunteer, non-profit NGO focused on environmental sensitivities and allergies. Provide information about research and therapies to help those affected by the medical conditions. Work with others to educate general public about health effects of environmental contaminants, from personal care and household cleaning products to pesticides.	Support, advocate for and provide information to environment-ally sensitive people and their families. Promote increased respect for rights of environmentally sensitive. Support lifestyle choices aimed at improving quality of environment.	Advocated for healthy school policy that led to use of fewer harsh chemicals and processes to handle problems. Cosmetic pesticide ban and related Dandelion Festivals. Lead group for Children's Environmental Health Network, part of government Children's Secretariat. Presentations about pesticide-free gardening, healthy housing, healthier personal care and cleaning products. Agricultural policy changes including reduced pesticide use and more organic farming support.		Canadian Cancer Society, PEI Division Prince Edward Island Eco-Net	Agriculture Air quality Chemicals Children Coalition Environment Environmental illness Green building Health Household products Housing Occupation Organics Pesticides and alternatives Schools Training/ workshops Workplaces
Prince Edward Island Eco-Net	Susan Hawkins, Executive Director	126 Richmond St. Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island C1A 1H9	902-566-4170 F: 902-566-4037	http://www.peieco.net.org E-mail: peien(at)isn.net	Not-for-profit non-governmental network of Prince Edward Island groups that care about the environment. Incorporated as a co-operative, is non-advocacy (does not take stands).	Helps member groups with their work through sharing information and providing administrative and technical support.	Cosmetic pesticide ban.	See list on website.	Atlantic Council for International Cooperation Canadian Environmental Network	Chemicals Environment Health Network Pesticides and alternatives Training/ workshops

Organisation	Contact person(s)	Address	Phone	Website and/or e-mail	Description	Purpose	TUR/cancer prevention activity/ies	Members	Work(ed) with/Member of (examples)	Keywords
PEI Certified Organic Producers Co-op (COPC)	David MacKay, Executive Director	PO Box 1776 Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island C1A 7N4	902-894-9999	http://www.organicpei.com E-mail: via http://www.organicpei.com/content/page/front_contact	Co-op of certified organic agriculture producers. Publish newsletter, present workshops, provide organic agriculture resources and links .	See organic agriculture grow within Prince Edward Island.	Organic land trust registry makes available land to new organic farmers or other farmers seeking organic certification. Lists producers and places to buy organic products.			Agriculture Chemicals Environment Food Health NGO Organics Pesticides and alternatives Training/ workshops
PEI Food Security Network	Michelle MacCallum, Executive Director, Woman's Network PEI	P.O. Box 233 Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island C1A 7K4	c/o 902-368-5040 F: 902-368-5039	http://peifoodsecurity.wordpress.com	Education and action organization committed to achieving food security in Prince Edward Island using set of principles . Developing plans for research, education and outreach. Holding workshops.	Change community attitudes and public policy to promote: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> environmentally appropriate practices for food production and distribution availability of affordable, healthy, culturally appropriate and person-ally acceptable food livable income for producers right to food PEI self-reliance in food. 	Food security.			Agriculture Chemicals Environment Food Health Network Pesticides and alternatives Training/ workshops